Stellar Days and Nights – Past to Present

-Eleanor Fahrney, Stellar Days and Nights Founder

I met my husband at Adventure Unlimited Ranches in Buena Vista and it wasn’t long after meeting Andrew that we discovered both of us enjoyed contra dancing. As we dated, we attended contra dances and weekends whenever and wherever we could, and when we got married we made sure there was dancing. Upon returning to Adventure Unlimited to live and work full time, our travels and wedding planning experience seemed to make us think we were qualified to start a dance weekend. Besides, we wanted to share the beautiful ranch at which we had spent many meaningful summers with the dance community we cherish. Steve Ruby gave us some initial ideas and hooked us up with our fabulous cook, Annie Johnston. Jim Borzym, Jeff Haemer, and numerous others offered both moral support and their incredible talents. With lots of late nights and a little bit of faith, Stellar Days and Nights was born in January 2005.

This coming February 21st through 24th we’re excited to offer the 4th annual Stellar Days and Nights. Join us for a relaxing vacation at the Adventure Unlimited Ranches in Buena Vista, CO, where you can enjoy 3 nights of contra dancing to the calling of Merri Rudd and the incredible music of Notorious (Larry Unger & Eden MacAdam-Somer from Boston) and Hands Five (Erika Gerety, Bruce Thomson, Peter Esherick, Gary Blank, & John Brinduse from Albuquerque). During the days, you can jam, sing, take a workshop, snowshoe, ski, soak in the hot springs, or relax by the fireplace with friends.

This year, we’re incredibly grateful for all the support of those who’ve attended in past years. We’ve been able to delegate some key roles, like handling registration and the website. We hope you’ll join the community of people who can’t for the next Stellar Weekend!

Here’s what past participants have said:

“I’ve been to camps around the country and this weekend was top-notch – one of the best.”

“This is such a lovely weekend. I was asked what was my favorite part of the weekend. It was impossible to choose. The dancing, the music, THE FOOD, the locale, the weather . . . the atmosphere of the dancing community.”

“I’m still experiencing a blissful high from your Stellar weekend. That was exactly what my mind, body and soul had been craving...snow, sun, snowshoeing, skiing, dancing, great people, music...*sigh*”

LOOKING For .....

The Village Arts Coalition is seeking a volunteer co-coordinator to assist with the organization and planning of the International Festival to be held on June 21 and 22, 2008 on the downtown pedestrian mall in Boulder.

The event involves performances by international dancers in colorful, ethnic costumes, and some teaching of simple dances for members of the public. VAC owns the large wooden floor provided for dancers and rents a large tent and chairs for the public to sit and enjoy the show. A market place selling imported creations from around the world surrounds the dance tent on the mall.

Coordination of this popular event offers valuable experience in handling of city and county regulations, assisting venders in an international market, dealing with non-profit volunteer dance organizations and with members of the dance community who volunteer to help to make the festival a successful, fun occasion. A co-coordinator will work closely with experienced volunteers who have provided this mid-summer public event in Boulder for the past decade. It is expected that a new volunteer will be willing to consider continued involvement with the festival.
