

Boulder International Folk Dancers (BIFD), a non-profit corporation, has been a long standing member and avid supporter of the Village Arts Coalition. BIFD hosts an international folk dance every Friday night at the Pearl Street Studio, with teaching from 7:30 to 8:30 pm followed by open dancing which continues on till 11:00 pm. We welcome new dancers warmly, and encourage those who have never danced before as well as those who have enjoyed other types of dance to join us and try something new. No experience is necessary and no partners are needed. The dances include line and circle formations, along with couple dances and some sets as well. Many of the BIFD favorites are from the Balkan Peninsula, including Bulgaria, Romania, Macedonia, Greece, Serbia, and Croatia. But in addition to these, there are dances from such far flung areas as Scandinavia, the Middle East, Africa, Central Europe, Asia, South and Central America, French Canada, and even the United States. The variety of dance and music that one gets to experience is without bounds! The evening's dance program is sure to be quite varied, and will include easy as well as more challenging and complex dances. There is something for everyone!

In order to keep the "old" dances alive within our group, BIFD has an Oldie Goldie night every 5th Friday. In addition to our weekly dances, the BIFD also hosts some special events throughout the year. The annual BIFD New Years Day dance party at the Avalon Ballroom is a favorite among not only the group's members but of the broader dance community as well. Come prepared to have a great time and to experience some high energy dancing.

Our parties don't end there: we have an annual Halloween party with costumes and "Dances in Disguise" where the programmer puts on different music to the dances we know. And at least once a year we bring in a band for the experience of dancing to live music.

Another favorite BIFD event is our annual weekend workshop, which is typically held in late winter or early spring. This is an event where the group hosts an out of town dance teacher(s) for an intensive weekend of teaching sessions, an evening dance party, and a final review of all the new material introduced over the weekend. In past years, BIFD has hosted Yves Moreau teaching dances of Bulgaria and French Canada, Michael Ginsburg teaching dances from Macedonia, Bulgaria and Rom communities, Joe Graziosi teaching dances of Greece, Lee Otterholt teaching dances from the Balkan countries, Kovacs teaching Hungarian dances, just to name a few. These weekend workshops offer dancers an opportunity to learn new material from experts in their fields, many of whom have done first hand research into the dances of these regions, have directed performing ensembles, and have taught at national and international dance camps and workshops.

This year on May 8, 9, and 10, BIFD is excited to welcome Sonia Dion and Critian Florescu who will be teaching dances from their native country of Romania. See more details under Special Events in this STOMP! issue.

For Boulder International Folk Dancers, dancing is a passion. Showing up at dance on Friday nights, regardless of how tired we are, the music is always uplifting and we get re-energized quickly. For the group members who don't have a family nearby – our fellow dancers are our family, for better or for worse...For example, during the holidays we always make sure to have a party for those who can't spend time with their loved ones.

For more information about BIFD visit our website at www.BoulderIFD.org or call ilana (303)449-2381 or e-mail her at ilana.baror@bvsd.org.

BALLROOM

Women Learning to Lead Waltz. Ladies! It's fun to learn to lead, and it makes you a better follower as well. Plus, you no longer have to sit out if there is a gender imbalance at a dance event. This class is for women who already know how to waltz and for men and women who would like to learn how to follow. No experience needed to do the follower role. Fun classes taught in a supportive atmosphere with lots of time to practice. Pearl Street Studio, Saturdays, 3-5 PM, $10 at the door, no partner needed. No fragrances please, some of us are allergic. Exact dates yet to be determined.

If interested, contact Barbara Roach at broach3@juno.com or 303-442-0677.

CELTIC & ENGLISH

Colorado Morris now consists of three teams, all of which will start practicing again after the performance season is over, and that means that beginners are welcome. All three teams have danced at the International Festival. Particulars on the teams' practices are:

Maroon Bells Morris dances Cotswold and the occasional longsword dances. It is the longest-standing of the three and you've probably seen us in our whites and ribbons somewhere in the state. Practice is on Wednesdays 7:30-9:30 p.m. in Northglenn.

Breathless in Berthoud is a Border Morris team, the border referring to the one between England and Wales. If you've seen dancers in colorful tatty coats and hats, you've watched Border. Practice is on Thursdays from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in Berthoud.

The Tommyknockers were started in 2002 by children of adults on the Maroon Bells Morris team and have since expanded to any interested kids. No description of the kit is needed - you recognize them by their age. Practice is on an irregular basis in Louisville, so call Nancy at 303-665-9413 for current details. Questions and requests for more information should be directed to Robin at 303-651-0909 or squire@maroonbellsmorris.org. Please also visit: www.maroonbellsmorris.org

Denver Ceili Club: Come do Irish aerobics in a social setting with Molly Bennett, instructor. Thurs. evenings at 7ish at the Friendship Irish Dance Center, 1944/1946 South Quebec St, Denver. Call 303-750-3510 for more info.

English Country Dance (sponsored by Colorado Friends of Old Time Music & Dance): Experience the Sense & Sensibility of English Country Dance to live music. All dances are taught and walked through; no partner or previous experience needed. Cost: ($10 with a $2 discount for CFOOTMAD members). Info: www.cfootmad.org or call 303 321-2262.
