

VAC Interesting News

Boulder Israeli Dance is a recreational folk dance group that meets each Sunday at 7:00pm to 10:00pm to dance, learn, and enjoy music and dances of Israel. Our main goal is to have fun and we're quite successful at meeting that goal! Our group has been dancing together since 1992, meeting every Sunday night at the Pearl Street Studio at 2126 Pearl Street in Boulder, behind the Snarf's. Beginning level teaching and dancing happen every Sunday from 7:00 pm to 8:00 pm, with open request dancing and sometimes advanced teaching from 8:00 until our "official" end at 10 pm, but depending on our moods and energy, dancing can continue on until midnight.

The music of Israel is culled from many different ethnic music types, and the dance is very varied. On Sunday nights, we do a mixture of dances that are old and new, fast and slow; easy and complex. Many Israeli dances are light and jumpy; others sound ancient and traditional; some are romantic couple dances; and some are jazzy and expressive modern line dances. In addition, our group has several teachers and programmers so each evening is just a little bit different.

Our group is primarily a recreational dance group, not a performance group. However, once a year, some of us rehearse and present a performance at the annual Boulder International Festival. We also have an annual picnic, some Saturday night parties, occasional guest teachers, monthly carpool to the Denver Israeli dance group, and members have traveled together to folkdance camps elsewhere in the country. For the first time, this year we are having a weekend dance getaway to the nearby mountains. Please come join us for any or all of these events.

Please come join us any Sunday evening at the Pearl Street studio for fun dancing with a friendly group of people. Although the dances we do are from Israel, there is no religious aspect to the group. Everyone is welcome and your first time is free.

For more information, you can contact Skip Ellis, Skip@Colorado.edu, 303-440-9388 or Marty Goldberg, Marty@Goldbergs.cc, 303-494-7603.

Perfect your Pivot, Hone your Hambo, Sharpen your Schottis! Starting September 21, Monday Night Scandinavian Dancing will offer a series of classes focusing on basic Scandinavian dance skills and accessible, fun dances. Learn the secrets of maintaining your own balance while connecting with your partner and turning effortlessly. The best part is, Scandinavian dance skills transfer to most other couple dance forms, so you will not only be learning new dances, you will be enhancing the ones you already know! We will begin with Telegangar, a Norwegian walking dance that is reminiscent of country swing in a relaxed tempo, and introduce pivots, one of the basic building blocks of Scandinavian turning dances. Pivots are also very useful in waltz and other couple dances. In the following weeks we will add schottis, basic polska, stigvals, hambo and Rørspols. The classes will build on each other, week to week, so it is helpful to come regularly. No need to bring a partner, as we change partners often, but do bring hard soled shoes because they make this dancing much easier. We usually have live music on fiddle, nyckelharpa and button accordion.
