STOMP!

Titanic Centennial Ragtime Dance Weekend

On April 10, 1912, the world's largest passenger steamship set sail from Southampton, England, bound for New York City. She carried some of the most prominent people of her day, millionaires and tycoons, including John Jacob Astor IV and Benjamin Guggenheim, and of course, Denver's own – Margaret (Molly) Brown – as well as teeming numbers of the lower classes, seeking new lives and opportunities across the Atlantic Ocean.

This luxurious liner embodied the latest in technology and opulence. And the Titanic has continued its allure for the past 100 years.

In the same period of time, Ragtime dance was coming to prominence. Marilyn Chartrand, Watch Your Step, and American Vernacular Dance will co-sponsor a weekend to commemorate the optimism and history of both the famous ocean liner and the joy of Ragtime dance, Friday, April 13-Sunday, April 15, 2012.

A host of special events will make this an unforgettable weekend. The weekend's festivities open Friday evening at Denver's Temple Events Center, with the screening of two silent films accompanied by Rodney Sauer. Irene Castle will make an appearance in the person of Susan Marie Frontczak, reflecting on the famous Ragtime dancer's life, and a taste of Ragtime dance will follow in the Temple's spacious ballroom.

Featured guest teachers, Richard Powers and Angela Amarillas of California, will teach Ragtime era dance and waltz workshops during the day on Saturday

BOULDER SCANDINAVIAN DANCERS

presents Annual Spring Workshop

March 16-18, 2012 • Avalon Ballroom

Cost: $110 by March 3rd • Pre-registration required – NO walk-ins.

Some experience with Swedish couple dancing preferred.

Dancers: Leif and Margareta Virtanen

Fiddlers: Peter Westerlund and Andreas Idh

Leif and Margareta began dancing 33 years ago and are respected for their knowledge of Swedish dance. They live in Norberg, Södra Dalarna. Since 1988 they have been the leaders of their local polska dance group. They have won numerous dance competitions including the Hälsingehambo and have each earned their big silver medal in polska dancing.

Peter plays music from Dalarna and Jämtland, as well as Bohuslän, Hälsingland, Värmland, and other smaller regions. He is a firm believer in keeping the music close to the heart of social dance, and strives for this quality in his playing.

Andreas has been playing the fiddle since he was ten years old, inspired by his uncle, Ulf Andersson from Föllinge. The traditional music and dances from this area are close to his heart, as is the music from Jämtland. Since 2009 he has been playing for the Uppdancing with the group Mittlat.
